[XXIIIᵈ. YEAR.] THE [Nº. 1151.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1767.

NAPLES, June 16.

IT is thought there will soon be some Revolution in this Kingdom, relative to the Jesuits, the King having forbid Cardinal Orsini to see the General of that Order, and directed him to discharge his Confessor, who is a Jesuit.

BERLIN, July 7. The Baron de Larrey, Envoy from the Prince Stadtholder, is still here, and his Commission is no longer a Secret. It was to demand the Princess Wilhelmina in Marriage for his Serene Highness, and he has executed it with Success. It is not certainly known when this Marriage will be solemnized, but it is generally thought that it will be in October next. The Beauty, good Sense, and amiable Disposition of this Princess, who possesses every natural and acquired Accomplishment, prognosticates the highest Felicity to his Serene Highness.

LONDON, July 11.

It was Yesterday reported, that one of our Cruizers, on the Newfoundland Station, had taken a large French Ship in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, with a great Quantity of Goods, Arms and Ammunition, on board, and carried her into St. John's.

The French King has yielded to the last Remonstrance of his Parliament concerning the Prolongation of the Twentieth Penny, and has issued another Edict, which has been registered, and which limits that Tax to Two Years, instead of Four and a Half, as was at first intended.

It is said that the Difference which has so long subsisted between Two noble Brothers, the one in, and the other out of the M------y, is on the Point of being made up, in which Case it is thought the latter will have some distinguished Post in the A---n conferred on him, with Liberty to bring his Friends in along with him.

The Terms which a certain Marquis offered, have been rejected.

It is said, that if the Earl of Chatham resigns, his Grace the Duke of Newcastle will be again appointed Lord Privy Seal.

Yesterday the Earl of Bristol had the Honour of a private Conference with his Majesty at St. James's.

No Changes have yet been declared at Court. The Right Hon. Mr. C----y, whose Resignation was voluntary, has been desired, as we are informed, to remain in his Place till a proper Person is chosen to fill it. The above Gentleman has several Times lately had the Honour of private Conferences with his Majesty.

The King of Sardinia, it is said, has formed the Project of assembling all the Jesuits in his Kingdom at Alexandria, and to confine them there till such Time as they shall be utterly extirpated.

July 9. Sunday the Marquis of Rockingham, and the Right Hon. Mr. Conway, set out of Town for Richmond, where they had a long Conference with his M------, who, we hear, sent for them expressly for that Purpose; and on Monday those Two Personages waited upon the Duke of Grafton, with whom also they had a long Conference. It is reported that the Marquis has refused the Lieutenancy of Ireland.

July 11. A great Personage, we hear, before he left London, declared publicly, that he would always oppose the present Administration.

Considerable Wagers are held at the West-End of the Town, that a noble Marquis will be in Possession of an Employment, which he lately held no less to his own Honour than the Satisfaction of the Public, before the Middle of August.

It is reported, that some Affairs of the utmost Importance to the Well-being and greater Improvement of the British Colonies in America, are now under Consideration of a great Board.

Information has been made within these few Days, against several Ladies, for wearing painted or dyed Calicoes, commonly called Chintz, the Penalty for which, on Conviction, is Five Pounds.

July 7. Yesterday one of the Clerks of the Bank was apprehended on Suspicion of Filing Guineas. In the Evening he attempted to cut his Throat, but without Success. On searching his House, many curious Instruments for the Purpose abovementioned, and also a Quantity of Gold Dust, were found.

The Bank Clerk who is in Custody for Filing Guineas, is, we hear, a Man of some considerable Property.

The Friends of Mr. Wilkes, we hear, are in great Hopes of his Pardon, and it is thought if such a Circumstance should take Place, the celebrated Exile will be in Parliament at the next General Election.

The Farmers round the Country, particularly in Devonshire, are dabbing out their Corn as fast as possible; and cursing the News-writers; for they say, if such a Pother had not been made by them, Corn would have been 20 s. a Bushel; but now the Price is falling, owing to the large Quantities of Corn imported, which may be, in some Measure, attributed to the News-Papers.

We hear that an Order will soon be issued from the War-Office, for a Muster and Return of all his Majesty's Forces in the several Garrisons of Great-Britain.

A great Number of Jesuits have been lately seen in different Parts of the Town, by a Gentleman who knew them abroad.

On Monday last a Man and his Wife, in the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, having some Words together, the Husband gave her Six-pence, and advised her to purchase some Arsenic, and poison herself; the Woman, from a false Spirit of Resentment, put her Husband's Injunction into Execution, and expired soon after in great Agony.

July 8. A Tradesman in the Strand has undertaken, for a Wager of Ten Guineas, to swim from Westminster-Bridge, to Chelsea-Ferry, in a Pair of Jack-Boots, and his Legs tied together about the Ancles.

July 9. A noble Lord being offered a Place in a certain Bed-Chamber, calmly told the Person who offered it, that he had no Inclination to be a Servant out of Livery.

By Letters from Rome, there is Advice, that a Corsican Nobleman, lately arrived there, charged with a Commission to the Court of Rome, had obtained a private Audience of the Pope, lived in great Splendor, and was in a few Days to set out, on Business of Importance, for Turin.

We hear that most of the Royal Forests in England are to be surveyed this Summer, in order to their being laid out into Farms.

July 12. They write from Gibraltar, that several Transports, laden with Ammunition, Naval and Military Stores, continue to arrive there from Holland, &c. bound to Corsica.

On Thursday Night Four Men, said to be Jesuits, were taken into Custody, in Oxford Road, by virtue of a Special Warrant.

July 14. We hear from Cowes and Newport, that the Farmers in the Isle of Wight, have got in all their Hay, and had the Prospect of exceeding plentiful Crops of Wheat.

It is said that not less than 430,000 l. were remitted into this Kingdom, on account of Corn exported to France, Spain and Portugal, in the Years 1764 and 1766.

July 16. Letters from the Frontiers of Spain take Notice of some Marks of Discontent in that Kingdom, at what has lately happened with regard to the Jesuits. The Governors, Commandants, &c. are ordered, it seems, to have a Watchful Eye, in their respective Departments, over the Public Tranquility; to prevent any tumultuous Assemblies; and to arrest all such Persons who shall discover, either by Words or Actions, any Disapprobation of his Majesty's Measures. And further, that in order to be prepared against all Surprize, as there are not above 30,000 regular Troops, and 21,000 Militia in the Kingdom, his Catholic Majesty has intreated the King of France to reinforce his Troops in the Garrisons nearest to Spain, that they may be ready to assist the Spanish Troops, in case there should be any Occasion to stifle the Spirit of Sedition.

Letters from Madrid advise, that many Persons who were known to be closely connected with the Jesuits, have been lately arrested there.

Wheat sold at Leeds last Tuesday se'nnight at the exorbitant Price of 7 l. 10 d. a Bushel, notwithstanding such Quantities are weekly imported, and the great Prospect of a plentiful Harvest.

A Memorial has just appeared at Paris, from a Person who pretends to be the Son of a powerful King in the Indies: He sets forth, that he was entrusted in his Youth to the Care of a Portuguese Dominican, with large Sums, for making the Tour of Europe; that after he had been at China, the Friar sold all the Effects and Slaves of his Pupil, and put him on board a French Ship, which brought him to L'Orient, where it was some Time before he could make himself understood; but as soon as he was able to do so, some People who had been in the Country, made no Doubt of the Truth of his Relation, &c. He now desires Permission to send Two Ships to Solor, to inform the King his Father, from whom he has been separated Twenty Years, of his present Condition, and of the Assistance he stands in need of to return home.

July 18. It is said above Two Millions Value of Teas are now in the Store-Houses of the East-India Company.

We hear from Gloucestershire, Worcestershire, Herefordshire, and Staffordshire, that they have plenty of fine Crops of Corn.

We hear that one of our East-India Ships lately arrived, fell in with a Pirate Ship in the Chinese Sea, the Commander of which was an Englishman; he was manned with Blacks, and was cruizing against the Dutch.

INTELLIGENCE EXTRAORDINARY.

The Terms upon which the M------ of R------ offered to come into the Administration were certainly as follows:

1. The D-- of R------d to go to Ireland.
2. Lord A------e to be at the Head of the Army.
3. Mr. Y---- to be Lord Chancellor.
4. Mr. C---y to be Secretary of State for the Southern Department. Which were refused.

Thursday Lord A----e set out for Woodburn.

Previous to the Offer of the above Terms, Application was made to those who have been firm and uniform in the Opposition to the Favourite; and the laudable Answer which they made was, "That they would not treat clandestinely; the whole of the Opposition (i. e. all the Leaders) must be taken in, or none."

CHARLES-TOWN, (South-Carolina) August 4.

The following Particulars relating to the desperate Villains that infest our Frontiers, may be depended on as authentic.

JULY 26. James Tyrrel, John Anderson, Sill Stoaks, James Stoaks, and one Cornelius, came to the House of James Miller, at Turkey-Creek, and robbed him of all his Wearing-Apparel, 45 l. in Cash, and a Parcel of Deer-skins. The next Day they went to the Dwelling of Michael Watson; and, after ransacking it of every Thing worth carrying off, set Fire to it, as also to his Wheat and Corn. From thence they proceeded to Watson's Father's, in order to do his Job, (as they said) but he got out of their Way. They then went down the Road about Ten Miles, where they met Conrad Elder, driving a Waggon, with his Family in it, going to his Settlement at Long-Canes, and robbed him of his Watch, 140 l. in Money, and took his Wife's Silver Buckles out of her Shoes, vowing Vengeance against every Person that durst oppose them: Upon which William Watson, with his Father, Brother, and Two other Men, pursued the Villains above 36 Miles, 'til they came within Half a Mile of Robert Ford's House, who is supposed to be one of the Party. Here they met Tyrrel and Anderson, and obliged them to surrender, and carried them up to Ford's House; when some of the Gang hollowed out Peace or War; Watson answered Peace; the housed Villains immediately fired on them, killed poor old Watson, one of his Sons, and another of their Party, and knocked down Michael Watson, who soon recovered himself, and after discharging his Piece, drew his Knife, and ripped Two of them open: This gave the Prisoners an Opportunity of making their Escape.

Captain Hays, on hearing of those Robbers, ordered out a Party of the Militia, under the Command of Lieut. Sinkfield, who went immediately in Quest of them; and a little this Side Ford's House, met Tyrrel, who was looking for Anderson; Lieut. Sinkfield called out to him to surrender, which he refused, desiring him to fire away, and be d--d; they then fired at him, and brought down one of the most barbarous Wretches among the whole Crew: On going a little farther, they met Ford's Boy with Sugar, which he said was to dress some of the Robbers Wounds that Anderson carried off. Night coming on, and Lieut. Sinkfield's Party being but Eight in Number, he thought it advisable not to make any farther Attempts 'til reinforced, when he intended to pay Ford and his Lodgers a Visit, and, if possible, to put a Stop to those Cruelties which are daily committed.

August 7. Letters from Silver Bluff, on Savannah River, dated on Tuesday, last Week, informs us, that a Number of the People called Crackers, who live above Augusta, in the Province of Georgia, had gone, in a hostile Manner, to the Indian Town and Settlement at Okonee, where, on their Arrival, finding only one old Indian Man, all the rest being out a hunting, they plundred the Village of every Thing of any Value that they could carry off, and burnt every House in it. The same Letters add, that this is like a formal Declaration of War, and that dreadful Consequences may be apprehended, should the Indians take it in that Light, in which Case, those People that committed such a violent Outrage, would be the first to run away. Letters from Augusta say, that the Pretence for such Violence was, that those who committed it had lost several Horses, which they suspected were stolen by the Indians of Okonee, that they went to that Town in search of them, but found none, and, seeing the Place defenceless, all the Men being from home, they resolved to plunder and burn it.

August 24. On the 16th of last Month, Two Proclamations were issued by his Excellency Governor Tryon, of North-Carolina,—One of them describing the Dividing-Line between the Lands of that Province, and the Cherokee-Indians; requiring all Persons settled on Indians Lands to remove by the 1st of January next; enjoining Surveyors not to run out any Lands within a Mile of said Dividing-Line; requiring Traders to take out Licences; and recommending a friendly and hospitable Treatment to all friendly Indians who shall or may have Business in the Settlements—The other, commanding all Officers to be assisting in apprehending and bringing to Justice, the attrocious Offenders that have lately infested the back Parts of the Southern Provinces.

NEW-YORK, September 17.

Yesterday came in from Sea, after having been out about Three Weeks, the Snow Margaret, Capt. Morgat, of this Place: She was bound for Monto Christi, and it is said, had a French Captain on board, with some French Mariners, designed for Hispaniola, and that the French Captain having attempted to destroy Captain Morgat, and take the Vessel from him, he had got him secured, and thought it best to put back again. We hear the Aggressor is since put on board his Majesty's Ship Coventry, now lying in North-River.

Whoever apprehends the said Servants, so as they may be had again, shall receive FORTY SHILLINGS Reward for each, if taken in this Province; and, if taken out of the Province, the above Reward, and reasonable Charges, if brought to the Subscriber, at the above Furnace, paid by

(1^{t}) FRANCIS PHILIPS.

N. B. HATTON and CHAPMAN went off together, the other about the Middle of August last.

THREE PISTOLES REWARD.

September 21, 1767.

RAN away, from the Subscriber, living in Queen-Anne's County, Maryland, in the Night of the 27th of June last, a Convict Servant, named THOMAS LAMPREY, about 28 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 10 Inches high; fair Complexion, wears his own Hair, if not cut off since he went away, of a fair Colour, and which he takes great Pride in; he is a little marked with the Small-Pox, and has a small Scar under one of his Eyes: Had on, and took with him, a light coloured Broad-Cloath Coat, with a small Velvet Collar; brown or snuff-coloured Jacket, dark strip'd Linen Trowsers, a new Felt Hat, old Pumps, one of which was patch'd at the Toe; but, as he had Money with him, he may perhaps buy new ones: He likewise stole, and took with him, a dark brown Horse, about 13 Hands high, in good Order when he went away; has a Snip on his Nose; one of his fore Hoofs is split almost up to the Hair, with a Saddle and Bridle, but his Marks are unknown. He says he is a Wool-Comber and Stocking-Weaver; and has often importun'd his Master to sell him to his Trade, at, or near German-Town. He has been a Soldier in the Foot-Guards at Home, and says he was convicted for attempting to commit a Rape upon a Woman there.

Whoever takes up and secures said Man, so as he may be had again, shall receive the above Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by

(1^{t}) NATHAN FARROW.

 All Persons are forbid to buy said Horse; and all Masters of Vessels, or others, are forbid harbouring or carrying off said Servant.

STRAY'D or STOLEN, about Three Months ago, from the Subscriber, living in London-Town, a dark Mouse coloured bay HORSE, about Twelve Hands and a Half high, has a small Star in his Forehead, Ridge-Mane, Switch Tail, and branded on the near Buttock, S.

Whoever brings said Horse to Mr. Brown's, at the above-mentioned Place, or Dr. John Hamilton, in Calvert County, shall have TWENTY SHILLINGS Reward. J. Hamilton

(2w) GAVIN H. SMITH.

The Owner may have her again, on proving Property, and paying Charges.

ANNAPOLIS, Sept. 24, 1767.

THE Subscriber, takes this Method of returning his most humble and hearty Thanks, to those Ladies and Gentlemen who have honoured him with their Children, during his Residence here. And, as some Complaints have been made, in relation to Order observed in his Dancing-School, he begs Leave to place them to their proper Origin, viz. An extraordinary Indulgence generally granted them by their Parents, aided by their own natural Frowardness, and a Knowledge of Private Instructions given the Master, in relation to a tender and civil Usage of them; or, in other Words, positive Instructions to spoil them. He is conscious he has never yet required of any Child more than an Obedience, which is absolutely necessary for their attaining a Knowledge in his Profession: And, as any Child, under such unlimited Restrictions, is capable of spoiling a whole School (in which Order is its greatest Recommendation) he is determined not to keep a Day-School longer than the 3d of next Month, he having experienced, how hard it is to please both Parent and Child.——Therefore all Persons having Demands against him, are desired to bring them in, and those indebted to him are requested to make speedy Payment, which will much oblige,

Their humble Servant, A. B. EBERT.

N. B. I cannot omit returning Thanks to a Lady of Distinction, who is justly fam'd for a great Volubility of Tongue, for her kind Recommendation of me in this City, especially in the Market-House; but would just observe to this very civil Lady, that she ought to look inward, and see what she is HERSELF, before she attempts traducing the Character, and depriving a Stranger of Bread, which he only endeavours to get in an honest Way.—My Pen not being capable of painting her many eminent Qualities, I wish her better Success with some Body else; but, Non procul à proprio stippite poma cadunt.

 I propose keeping an EVENING SCHOOL.

PORT-TOBACCO, Sept. 2, 1767.

BROKE Jail, and made their Escape, on Tuesday, the 1st Instant, the following Persons, Sailors, viz.

HUGH BURNEY, an Irishman, about Five Feet Eight Inches high; had on a blue Jacket, and Sailor's Trowsers.

CHARLES SWANN, a Dane, about Five Feet Four Inches high; had on a blue Jacket, and Sailor's Trowsers.

CORNELIUS SULIVAN, an Irishman, a thick clumsy Fellow, about Five Feet high; had on a brown Linen Shirt, Negro Cloth Breeches, and a red Calf-Skin Cap.

THOMAS LOFTIS, Country born, a slim tall Man, a Ship Carpenter; had on a blue Broad-Cloth Coat and Jacket, and Buckskin Breeches.

Whoever apprehends the said Persons, and secures them in any Jail, or delivers them to the Subscriber, shall receive Two PISTOLES for each.

CHARLES S. SMITH, Sheriff.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1767.
